The appointment marks the third time Mustafa Abushagur has been prime minister, following the resignation of Ali Zeidan and the two military interventions. The new regime says its priority is to achieve peace in Libya and promote development. A number of people were killed and more than 500 wounded in recent clashes across the country. There are also reports of foreign hostages being taken by armed groups, including three Americans, two Britons and three Egyptians, according to the International Committee of the Red Cross. One local rights organisation has said the arrests of some pro-democracy activists and the closure of the internet in some cities may be related to the recent upsurge in violence. The ICRC said on Saturday that negotiations were ongoing to free the three foreigners. Gunfire and explosions could be heard across central Tripoli on Saturday morning. The sound of shelling and gunfire rang out across the city for several hours, although there were no reports of casualties. 'Peace and stability' Just before midnight, a convoy of cars bearing the new prime minister entered Tripoli's main airport on Saturday.

Mustafa Abushagur has also been given ministerial portfolios for foreign affairs, agriculture, and higher education. The appointments follow the resignation of Ali Zeidan, who was replaced by Fayez al-Serraj on 20 March. "His mission is peace and stability. His mission is to bring development and democracy to Libya and I want to help him do that," said Mr Serraj. Image copyright AFP Image caption Mustafa Abushagur was
