the FFI4 test. I'm a slight ESTJ, i'm leaning more toward the ESFJ when it comes to my personality. Because i can't find an ENTJ profile, I decided to use my highest INTJ profile since I have some traits of that type. My primary is INTJ. This is what I came up with. The key thing i'm having issues with is the logical leg. I'm trying to figure out if it's low because i'm not a natural thinker, or if i just like to analyze things. I always see it high for INTP types because they are a lot of what I would call "System People". I also see it low or moderate for ENTP types because of their ability to make decisions for themselves. I've been trying to see if I can get the better of this leg, and what would be a good way to really test the INTJ leg, but I just can't seem to figure it out. Forgive me if it seems like I'm being difficult, I'm still very new.
