Epic Gameplay Technology Epic Gameplay Technology delivers the fast-paced, fluid and explosive gameplay that EA SPORTS football fans have come to love. Fans can experience near-360° rotational football moves like never before, with players manipulating the ball while making complex decisions with their feet and getting into tight spaces where their opponents will be vulnerable. Now with Epic Gameplay Technology, players will feel like they are truly on the pitch. Fans can now customize player attributes, including attributes such as speed, acceleration and agility, with over 150 attributes that can be tuned to a player's liking. Players can also enhance their skills with new talents, including the Academy, which allows a player to gain individual skill enhancements from development camps. The strength of the Academy has been increased to allow new players to improve faster. At kickoff and during sprints, fans can now take the ultimate free kick by challenging the goalkeeper. Additionally, anytime a player receives the ball with less than two touches, fans will have the opportunity to send that player into the box for a penalty kick. Feature Improvements in FIFA 22 Major new features and new additions to all game modes. Revolutionary Global Gameplay Engine (GGEngine) 2.0: the next generation engine that delivers the simulation and fluidity of foot-on-ball and head-on-ball football matches. The innovative new standard match engine is now 50% faster than the original engine, allowing for faster artificial intelligence, ball position updates, goal celebrations, ball physics and animations. New Referee System: players can now talk to the referee as they would with a coach to influence the outcome of the game, adding an additional layer of strategy and tactics to the gameplay. Tactical Defending: blocking an opposing player from controlling the ball can cause a host of benefits for your team including gaining possession from a free kick, gaining more time on the ball from a throw-in, and gaining more time to play forward passes. Smart AI and Manager Vision System (MAS) 2.0: new AI algorithms and the newest vision system technology allow the players to behave more intelligently than ever before. New Hybrid Player Trajectory Engine: the ball will fly more realistically through the air and bounce across the pitch. New Real Player Momentum Physics: every player now gains momentum with every contact. Momentum can be either lost or gained by making contact with the ball. Momentum

Fifa 22 Features Key:

- Be a Professional: Create the coolest squad in the game and dominate game modes with an all-new Manager mode. Gain more control over over 40 teams in the game, including the most popular clubs of today.
- Become THE Pro: Manage your club in FIFA or as a footballer in Player Career mode and reach the top as you climb through World Leagues. Make history with new manager moves and bring your team to that next level.
- Be a Pro in Every Way: Use hypermotion technology to simulate the way you would move on the pitch and tackle a player in the heat of the moment.
- Transition Control: Transitions make football more exciting, and transition events from offence to defence or from defence to offence are simulated in the game and evaluated by the AI. When you attack and the ball falls to the defence, choose to clear, dribble it up and score.
- World Class Player Crouch: This technology includes more player reactions, and a more tailored approach to certain player actions. Watch your favourite players receive the ball on the knee, cut infield to quickly receive and start a move in the opponent's half.
- FIFA World Stars: Introducing the new FIFA World Stars mode, where 20 of the world's most decorated footballers drive football's latest evolution. Play single FIFA World Stars matches online or in our new four-player FUT Champions league.
