Ever since I first saw the gun re-branding Oculusvr VR title site World of Guns, it had been creeping around in my brain. The game was a fun and immersive experience that is bloody tough and intense! While the slideshow included images on their Facebook page, I wanted to include the entire "world" and the different gun models. I heavily recommend to check out this great VR experience if you've not already! Note: Hands Off The Nuts, Heads Up! This is definitely NOT a gun review. I found a replica of a M4 semi-auto to purchase from a company that specializes in "artistic" hardware. (HandsOffNutsArt.com - a "Virtual Reality Museum") I will include my experience with purchasing the rifle and giving it some 'VR play time.'
